Dundaff Republican / Northern Pennsylvanian

February 14, 1828--December 23, 1840

Compiled by

S. Robert Powell, Executive Director
Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc.

In 2003, S. Robert Powell read all of the copies of the Dundaff Republican / Northern Pennsylvanian, for the period 1828-1840, in the collections of the Carbondale Historical Society and copied down the 354 marriage and 269 death notices contained therein. Those notices are all given here.

This newspaper indexing project was made possible through a partnership agreement between the Lackawanna Heritage Valley Authority (John W. Cosgrove, Executive Director) and the Carbondale Historical Society.

4. At the market house, in Augusta, Ga. at 5 o'clock, on Wednesday evening, 20th Feb. by J. W. Meredith, Esq. Mr. Bright Prickett, to Miss Eliza Cole.

The above pair were emigrating from North Carolina, and became first acquainted with each other 'on the long road to Georgia.' They were bound to different sections of the country, and finding that the roads forked at Augusta the idea of a separation was intolerable, so enamoured had they become of each other on their journey. They had halted in front of the market, when their disconsolate situation was whispered to some of our citizens--the news became general, and in a short period several hundred of our people, from generals and alderman, colonels and squires, down to the little boys of the city, gathered around--and all agreed that Mr. Bright and Eliza should be one. A subscription was instantly raised to pay the license fee, and our worthy Squire, of the 122d district, volunteered to officiate on the occasion without 'fee, reward, or the hope thereof.' The knot being tied, Alderman Danforth proposed that a subscription be raised for a marriage portion, and with praiseworthy example, tendered on hundred pounds of bacon as his quota. The thing took well, --and the happy pair took up their line of march, arm in arm, towards Tallahassee amidst loud huzzahs of prosperity to the Republic, and long live Mr. Bright and Mrs. Eliza. (March 27, 1828, p. 3)

1. DEATH OF DE WIT CLINTON.

Extract of a letter to Mr. Joseph M. Sanderson, dated New York, Feb. 14, 1828.

"I am extremely sorry to inform you of the death of DE WIT CLINTON, Governor of the State of New York: his exit took place on Monday evening last at 7 o'clock, and it is as true as it is strange, that the news only arrived in this city this evening by Mr. Van Bethuysen, one of the Editors of the Albany Argus. It appears that he was seated in his study, apparently in good health--his head suddenly dropped, and he instantly expired! The cause of his death is said to have been the rupture of a blood vessel near the heart." Phil. Price Cur. (February 21, 1828, p. 3)

A more extensive obituary of DeWitt Clinton is published in the Dundaff Republican of March 6, 1828, p. 3.

In the April 3, 1828 issue (p. 3) of the Dundaff Republican, we read:

Monument to Clinton.--A public meeting of the citizens of Buffalo was called on the 28th ult. "to concert measures for the erection of two monuments to the Memory of DE WITT CLINTON, to be located at the extremities of the Erie Canal, at Buffalo and Albany; and to appoint a committee who shall act in concert with a like one of the City of Albany, in furtherance of the proposed measure." (April 3, 1828, p. 3)

2. OBITUARY. On Saturday the 17th ultimo, young Edmund Talbot, (a son of Rev. Edmund Talbot of Jones County, Near Clinton) in the 14th year of his age, walked out with his gun and dog, and after hunting some time, stopped at one of his neighbor's an acquaintance and friend of his parents' where, in the presence of some of his youthful associates, his gun casually went off, discharging the load through his head, and killed him instantly.

Who can imagine the sudden consternation, that derangement of mind, the grief and distraction which the news of this horrid misfortune instantly produced? . . . Ga. Patriot. (June 19, 1828, p. 3)

3. Died, suddenly on Tuesday morning, about six o'clock, in Herrick township, Capt. Hezekiah H. Ellis, aged 31 years, after an illness of only three days; he was not considered dangerous a few hours previous to his death. In his death society has lost a valuable citizen, his parents the hope and prop of their declining years, his companion an affectionate husband and his children a tender parent. "In the midst of life we are surrounded by the solemnities of sudden death." (August 28, 1828, p. 3)

4. In Wilkesbarre, on the 28th ult. of the Dysentary, Henry Worrall, son of Mr. Lewis Worrall, aged 17 years and 2 months. (September 4, 1828, p. 3)

5. In Indiana, his Excellency Gov. Ray. It was recently ascertained that has been re elected in that State. (September 4, 1828, p. 3)

6. In Eaton, Luzerne county, on Wednesday afternoon of this week, elder John Wilson, after a short illness, Pastor of the Baptist Church in that town. (September 4, 1828, p. 3)

15. In Hartland, Vt. January 19th, Col. GEORGE DENISON aged 77 years, with a lingering complaint, being the infirmities of old age, which he bore with Christian fortitude, in the firm belief of the final salvation of all mankind. he was born in Stonington, Connecticut; was an active soldier in the Revolution--lost a handsome fortune by Continental money.--Being reduced to indigent circumstance, he removed to Hartland, in the year 1789, with a large family of small children. He commenced cultivating the wilderness and by his exertions acquired a large estate, and brought up his family respectably. As the wilderness budded and blossomed he arose to honorary employments. He was a field officer in the first brigade, first division of the militia of the state--was one of those who helped to make the present constitution of the state; and notwithstanding his loss of prosperity, privations and hardships, he uniformly continued a firm friend to the rational liberties of his Country. His house was the house of hospitality to the poor and needy.--His funeral was attended with a numerous assembly of old friends and acquaintances--his remains were entombed on the fourth day after his decease, to await the call of his God. "Who can live and die a better death, / In this Columbian land; / Who sleepeth quiet in the grave / To meet his God's command." (July 9, 1829, p. 3)

16. In Brooklyn township on Monday evening last, after a short illness, Dr. SAMUEL BISSELL. (July 23, 1829, p. 3)

27. In Herrick on the 5th inst. Mrs. Lucy Demming Aged 85. (May 12, 1830, p. 2)

28. ANOTHER MURDER!!!

We understand that an old Hermit by the name of Comstock, lately shot a near neighbour of his, by the name of Joseph Quick, living in the town of Nicholson, Luzerne county.

There had been a dispute between the parties for some time past, concerning a piece of line fence--that while Quick was in the act of putting up the fence on Thursday afternoon the 13th inst. Comstock proceeded to the place with a gun which he had borrowed for the occasion and deliberately shot Quick through the lower part of the body; he lived about 24 hours, after the wound, when he expired. Leaving a small family to mourn his untimely end Comstock is safely lodged in the jail at Wilkesbarre, to await his trial. (May 19, 1830, p. 3)

29. In Providence, Luzerne county, on the 28th of May, Mr. Isaac Tripp, aged 53 years. (June 9, 1830, p. 3)

30. Small Pox alias Varioloid.

This alarming disease made its appearance in the Borough of Montrose, about five weeks ago; since which time three new cases have made their appearance. One of its victims Jacob Wilsie, died on Saturday morning last.

We understand the other three are likely to recover. It is to be feared that more cases of it will occur soon. It behooves the publick to be on their guard, lest its spread should become general thro' the country.

We would recommend a more general resort to vaccination. (June 16, 1830, p. 2)

31. In Gibson on the 9th inst. Miss Julia Shepherson, aged 17 years.

'Tis thus the maiden in her bloom / Is silent sent unto the tomb-- / The brittle thread soon is parted / Her parents now, broken hearted / Lament her death--tho' in God's word / With full reliance on the Lord / We trust and hope with sins forgiven / That she is singing now in heaven, M L P (July 21, 1830, p. 2)

32. DIED In _____, on the 15th inst. John Lee, aged 27 years. (July 21, 1830, p. 2)

34. In the Borough of Wilkesbarre on Wednesday the 11th inst., the Hon. Jesse Fell, one of the Associate Judges of the Courts of Luzerne County, aged about 80 years. (August 18, 1830, p. 3)

35. In Clifford township, on Friday afternoon, the 1st inst., Mr. Blackleach Burrit. (October 6, 1830, p. 3)

36. In the same town [Clifford township], on Saturday the 2^d inst., Mr. Edward W. Phelps after a short illness. (October 6, 1830, p. 3)

37. DIED, suddenly at Brunswick, N. J. on the 24th ult. Mr. Charles Stewart, son of Philip I. Stewart of this town. (November 10., 1830, p. 3)

38. MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. On Wednesday the 3^d inst, Mr. Daniel D. Spencer, went into the woods for the purpose of falling timber, near Carbondale. In falling a tree which it appears partly lodged against another--several limbs were broken off, and thereby precipitated back, one or more of which struck Mr. Spencer upon the side and shoulder, and caused his immediate death. He has left an afflicted family to mourn his untimely exit. (November 10, 1830, p. 2)

39. DROWNED. In consequence of the heavy rains last week the coal mines at Carbondale were filled with water. On Monday evening the 15th inst. Samuel Sloane, a laborer was missing; search was diligently made until Thursday afternoon, when the body was found in one of the pits. It is supposed that he fell from the bank while in a state of intoxication. (November 24, 1830, p. 2)

40. In this Borough, on Saturday, the 19th inst. of Croup, MARY ORCELIA, aged about 9 months, infant daughter of James and Calista Rolls. (March 23, 1831, p. 4)

41. At Montrose, on the 17th inst. Mrs. HANNAH, wife of J. W. Raynsford Esq. in the 52nd year of her age. The deceased sustained herself in all the relations of life, with fidelity and christian dignity. The Episcopal Church of which she was a member, feels loss in her removal. (March 23, 1831, p. 4)

42. SUDDEN DEATH. James Johnson of Gibson, attending a company training, after being dismissed, while in conversation with some friends his voice faltered, when he instantly fell down and expired.--Aged about 26 years. (April 27, 1831, p. 2)

44. In Nicholson, Luzerne county, on the 16th ult. at the residence of his son in law, Mr. THOMAS FOSTER, aged 75 years.

45. Mr. Foster was a soldier in the war of the revolution, and was familiar with the events which characterized the "days which tried men's souls." Through a long and eventful life Mr. F. maintained a character for the strictest integrity in his dealings, and for an upright and moral deportment in his habits. His interesting manner of communicating the events with which he was familiar, rendered him a welcome companion in every circle. The old and the young, the rich and the poor, always found something in his conversation, which was calculated to make them wiser and better. These revered patriarchs of the revolution have almost entirely departed from among us. Here and there 'tis true, we see one--but the "dim eye and the sere ear" and the tottering footsteps, foretell, that ere long the last of our revolutionary patriots will have gone to receive his reward in Heaven. [Communicated.] (September 4, 1831, p. 3)

46. In this borough on the 20th inst. JOHN CONRAN, who has left a wife and family of two children to mourn his loss. The deceased was originally a native of Ireland and emigrated to this country some years ago. By dint of incessant industry and perseverance in hard labour with his own hands he had acquired an estate of between one and two thousand dollars value. He was a remarkably peaceable, intelligent, and upright citizen, studiously attentive to his own business and inofficious in that of others. But with all his virtues, he is "gone the way of all the earth." (December 23, 1831, p. 3)

The deceased has left a large family of small children, to deplore her loss--However inexplicable such dispensations of Providence are to the human mind. christian religion teaches its votaries to submit with pious resignation--'God moves in a mysterious way.' Let not weak reason call him to account. Reader, is they family in health! -- Be grateful to they Creator! Are they children amply provided for? Raise thy soul with thanksgiving to the author of all good. Let not they ear be closed against the cries of the needy, nor they soul so [word missing] with avarice, as not to pity and relieve the distressed, when occasion present. Heaven bless the charitable and good. [Com. (March 7, 1835, p. 3)

202. Also, very suddenly, Ann, daughter of David Hughes, aged 7 years. The circumstances of the death of this child were somewhat rare. In the absence of the parents, the clothes of the child ignited, and the child was so much injured by the fire that it died the next day. (March 7, 1835, p. 3)

203. Died, on the 18th ultimo, at the residence of her son, Mr. William Finn, of Clifford, Susquehanna co. Pa. Mrs. HANNAH GORE, widow of Daniel Gore, in the 85th year of her age. The deceased was a native of Orange Co. N. Y., from which she removed to Wyoming valley, with her former husband, Mr. Finn, previous to the Wyoming massacre. They were driven back to Orange Co. by the Indians, where they continued until the close of the trouble with the savages, when they returned to Wyoming, where she remained until about the year 1801, when after the death of her husband Mr. Finn she removed to the township of Clifford. In 1806, was married to Daniel Gore, moved again to Wyoming, lived with him about 3 years, and after the death of Mr. Gore, she moved to the residence of her son, at which place she the remained until her death. Mrs. Gore had been a member of the Baptist church for many years; she was eminently pious, and in a good old age, descended to the grave in peace with a hope full of immortality, leaving a posterity of about 300. (April 4, 1835, p. 3)

204. Died on the 27th ult. ADALINE, consort of Edgar Bogardus. The deceased was born in Wurtsboro, Sullivan county, N. Y.; aged 22 years. The funeral services were attended in the Presbyterian meeting house, on Sunday, the 29th inst--Sermon by the Rev. S. Marks. Text--I Peter, 4, 7, 8, 10, 11; congregation unusually large and attentive. The deceased was an amiable, and excellent woman. Trying indeed was the event to the bereaved husband and parents. May we all learn the instability of scenes terrestrial, and live in such a way, that when we depart, we may rise to life immortal. "Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord." (April 4, 1835, p. 3)

205. In Herrick, Susquehanna Co. Pa. on the 25th of March, Mrs. AMANDA LYON, consort of Wheeler Lyon, aged 39 years. Mrs. Lyon was the daughter of Mr. Potter, of Gibson, & who also bid adieu to the sufferings of mortality but a few weeks previous to the death of his daughter, Mrs. Lyon, the subject of this brief notice, was possessed of a most amiable disposition from her infancy. She possessed the free friendship and esteem of all her acquaintances, and they were very numerous. About five years previous to her death, she embraced religion. Her life was a practical comment upon her profession--her piety deep consistent and uniform. But among those virtues and graces which shone conspicuous in her character, patience was pre-eminent. During the long period of four years, she languished on the bed of suffering. An incurable consumption wasted her frame; and at last laid her in the grave. Under all her protracted suffering, she never complained, but with patience endured, seeing by faith, him who is invisible. A numerous concourse of friends attended her remains to the tomb, where they rest in sure hope of the resurrection, and a blissful immortality in heaven. (April 11, 1835, p. 3)

206. Singular Death. Departed this life, on the 24th of April last, Mrs. HANNAH FARNHAM, after a long and painful illness, caused by a cancer in the breast. She had it cut or lacerated three times, and bore it with Christian fortitude, but it did not effect a cure. The deceased was consort of Eliab Farnham, of Nicholson township. She died at 2 o'clock on Friday morning, the same hour of the day that she was born, the same day of the month, and the same day of the year, being precisely 57 years of age. The deceased has left a large and extensive train of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. -- Com. (May 23, 1835, p. 3)

207. In Greenfield, on Tuesday, the 19th inst. after a protracted illness, of liver complaint, MICAH VAIL, aged 70 years. (May 23, 1835, p. 3)

208. In Greenfield, on the 10th ultimo, LEWIS PHILIP, son of Dr. Francis Carey, aged about 8 months. (June 6, 1835, p. 3)

209. At Providence Corners, on Friday last in consequence of a fall from a wagon, Mr. Wm. Prosser, a native of Abergavenny, England, aged 47 years, a truly honest and inoffensive man. (June 27, 1835, p. 3)

210. Another of the Revolutionary Soldiers gone. Died, April 12th, at Salem, Washington Co., N. Y., Bethuel Church, Esq., aged 82 years. He was a volunteer in the United States service at the time of Burgoyne. He was a Whig in the revolution, and remained unwaveringly so to the end of his life, but disclaimed all relation to the Whigs of '34. He was a voluntary soldier in the service of his Divine master 59 years remained steadfast and immoveable to the last; and, although during the last year of his life, he often complained of himself, that he had now always abounded in the worship of the Lord, yet he died in a firm hope of glorious immortality. He left living, a wife aged 80, with whom he had lived happily 60 years,--ten who called him father, and 19 who called him great grand father. (June 27, 1835, p. 3)

211. Obituary. DIED--In this village, on Wednesday, the 12th day of August, JAMES CONNER, a native of Ireland, in the 32d year of his age. His death was occasioned by the fall of a part of the roof, while engaged in the mines. (August 15, 1835, p. 3)

212. Death of Cobbett.--The celebrated William Cobbett died in London, on the 19th of June, aged 73 years. (August 15, 1835, p. 3)

213. Departed this life, on Sunday evening, the 16th instant, ABBY ANN, daughter of the Rev. Samuel, and Eliza R. Marks, of this village, aged six years and two months. The burial service was performed by a Lay gentleman, after which the Rev. Mr. Marks delivered the following short address:-- [in obituary but not given here]. (August 22, 1835, p. 3)

214. On Sunday evening last, in this village, an infant daughter of Mr. Job C. Gray. Mr. Gray has been very unfortunate recently, as it was but a few weeks since, he lost an infant son, six or seven months old--they were twins. (August 22, 1835, p. 3)

215. On the morning of the 18th inst. an infant daughter of Mr. James S. Morrow, aged about eight months. This child has apparently been on the decline for a long time. (August 22, 1835, p. 3)

216. In Abington, on the 23d inst., SAMUEL, son of the late Samuel Stone, aged ten years. (August 29, 1835, p. 3)

217. In Greenfield, on the 23d inst., ELI ZAPHIN, son of Solomon A. Millard, aged about 2 years. (August 29, 1835, p. 3)

218. On the 30th ult., at the residence of Hiram Blanchard, at Whitehaven, upon the Lehigh river, Dr. EDWARD S. RICHARDSON, eldest son of the Rev. Lyman Richardson, of Harford, Susquehanna Co.; aged about 23 years. This estimable young man was for the last four years a resident among us, as a medical student, of Dr. Thomas Sweet, of this village; where his altogether amiable qualities, his mild, generous, cheerful disposition, his social, unassuming manners, and correct moral deportment, had gained for him the unqualified respect and esteem of all who knew him. During an illness of fifteen days, which commenced about two weeks after his settlement at Whitehaven, in the capacity of a Physician, he exhibited under circumstances of extreme suffering, a most exemplary degree of quiet patience and resignation. His bearing altogether, under a firm conviction that his dissolution was near and inevitable, was such as might have well characterized the old and long-trying Christian. Upon his dying bed, he expressed his reliance upon the divine mediator, for his eternal welfare. By his intimate associates here, his loss will be felt and regretted as that of an endeared brother. And there are none within the circle of his acquaintance, but will revert with heartfelt sympathy at their loss in him, to the kindness and affability that characterized his intercourse with all. His talents were of an order that gave fair promise of high, and even eminent, professional usefulness. He was one of the few who, with a fondness for society, that had its birth in the warm kindness of his nature, found no enemies, but every one a friend. In reference to him, it may most truly be said, "None knew thee but to love thee, / None names thee but to praise." (October 10, 1835, p. 3)

219. In Greenfield township, on the 23d of September, MOSES W. COX, in the 49th year of his age leaving a wife and six children to lament the loss of a kind husband and father. (October 17, 1835, p. 3)

220. On Monday, the 16th instant, in Canaan township, Wayne Co. Mr. Elisha Forbes aged about 30 years. (November 21, 1835, p. 3)

221. In this village, on Thursday, the 18th inst. Mrs. Eleanor Dies, consort of Mr. George dies, after a protracted illness of several months, aged about 27 years. (November 21, 1835, p. 3)

222. On Monday, last, in this village, Harriet, & Lucretia, infant daughters of Hermon L. and Cecilla M. Emmons. (November 21, 1835, p. 3)

223. On _____ of last week, an infant of the Rev. S. Marks. (November 21, 1835, p. 3)

224. At Canaan, Wayne county, of a short though severe illness, which he endured with christian fortitude and resignation, Mr. Silas Hoadley, in the 70th year of his age. Mr. Hoadley was formerly resident of Branford, New Haven, Connecticut. During our revolutionary struggle he was found engaged in defense of our country against foreign aggressors--sustaining the cause of freedom and of right. In 1814 he emigrated to this country, where he has since resided maintaining an unblemished character and living an exemplary life. His funeral obsequies were attended by the Rev. Mr. Marks of Carbondale, and by a large concourse of friends, who, by their sympathy, testified to the loss of which all had sustained. In accordance with his wishes he was buried according to the ceremonies of the Episcopal Church, of which he was a member. Well may it be said of him, that he was an affectionate husband--a kind parent--a good neighbor, and an honest man--and died with full assurance of a blessed and glorious immortality thro' the merits of Christ, the Redeemer. (November 21, 1835, p. 3)

225. On the morning of the 6th inst. a daughter of Mr. Luther Hubbard, (Salla Rosilia,) of Greenfield township, Luzerne county, Pa. was left alone in a room, while the family were at breakfast, when hearing her shrieks, and running to examine the cause, her distracted parents found that her cloths had ignited, and that she was completely engulfed in flames--Relief came too late--she lingered until the next morning, when she expired. (December 12, 1835, p. 3)

226. In Abington, on Monday last, Mrs. EMILY consort of Mr. Joseph Miller, after a lingering illness. (December 12, 1835, p. 3)

227. Obituary.--Communicated DIED--In Abington on Wednesday the 16th of Dec. 1835, Mrs. PHEBE COLVIN, after a short illness of three days. She was a native of Rhode Island, and emigrated to Pennsylvania with her parents, where she became one of the heads of a respectable family. She experienced religion about five years previous to her death, and united with the six principle Baptist Church, where she remained until her death. As a wife, she was amiable and praise worthy; as a mother, she was tender, kind and affectionate, her house was the Asylum of the distressed, the abode of the unfortunate. "In her the Christian graces shone, / Blended with the holy light, / Like stars around the moon's high throne, / That grace the brow of night."

The circumstances of her Death were something singular--while on a visit to her father's she took from a shelf a piece of white led [sic] which she supposed to be chalk, and eat a small quantity, which terminated her existence. Medical aid was employed to no purpose: the grim messenger had too firm a grip to be unloosed, so that 'in the midst of life we are in death.' (January 2, 1836, p. 3)

228. In this village, on the 12th inst. Mrs. PHILENA WILSON, wife of the editor of this paper, and daughter of Mr. NATHANIEL WETHERBY, of Greenfield, aged 28 years. She has left two children of tender age, together with a numerous circle of friends and relations to lament her early death.

The deceased has for many months lingered under the most painful indisposition, which she has born with unexampled fortitude;--wishing to be restored to health, only that she might be useful to her family and friends, but always willing to depart if it were the pleasure of Heaven. This writer has seen her in health, assiduously employed in her household affairs, making the happiness of her husband and family, her constant study; her countenance beaming forth the goodness of her heart, and purity of her life. He has seen her, too, when disease was preying upon her system in its most virulent form; when death seemed hovering about her couch, and a separation from family and friends and earthly hopes appeared inevitable; still she was calm and serene in mind, and even under the severest bodily suffering, never failed to dispense to the friends who called, the smile which betokens that amiableness of heart, and peacefulness of mind of which those only are possessed; in friendship with all mankind, and at peace with their Maker. Her husband, whose tenderest affection lie buried beneath the rugged frosts will long feel the loss of an amiable and affection companion, whose society stripped the toils and business of life of all their severities;--her tender offspring will no more feel the tender embrace of a doting mother, and although too young truly to realize their loss, they must miss the presence and protection of their natural guardian. Parents, sisters and brothers, are bereaved of a dutiful and affection daughter and sister, whose loss will long be lamented, but whose many virtues will be cherished in fond recollections, till the lamps of life are fled, and they are re-united in that world of bliss, where grief and parting are no more.

"And yet we scarcely ought to mourn / The spirit early flown, / Ere that soft heart, by anguish torn, / Afflictions' blight had known-- / For we in tears, and she at rest-- / The sufferer cannot weep the blest. / She sleeps, where in the balmy air, / The perfumed wild flowers wave; / And violets spring in garlands fair, / Around her hallowed grave; / And wait there--their living breath / Around the silent couch of death." (January 16, 1836, p. 3)

229. At Harrisburg on the 25th ultimo, at a very advanced age, JAMES TRIBLE, Esq. The deceased has held the office of Deputy Secretary of the commonwealth for a great number of years under various administrations, which station he filled with great ability. It is said that his recent removal from office was a shock too severe for his weak frame to bear--the tie which bound him to life was severed--in the absence of the stimulus of the duties he had been so long accustomed to discharge, he pined away and died. (February 6, 1836, p. 3)

230. Also--a short time previous, our late fellow townsman, Maj. O. PORTER. Mr. Porter had recently removed his family to Harrisburg, from this place. (February 6, 1836, p. 3)

231. On Sunday last, very suddenly, an infant son of Dr. Thomas Sweet, of this village. This child had been dangerously indisposed some time previous, but had partially recovered--five minutes before its death it appeared well and playful--but suddenly gasped and died. (February 6, 1836, p. 3)

232. On Thursday morning the 25th inst. of a pulmonary affection, HANNAH R., wife of C. L. Ward, Esq. senior editor of the Susquehanna Register, and daughter of J. W. Raynsford, Esq. of Montrose--aged 21 years. Thus has found a premative [sic] grave, a highly estimable woman--formed to bless and adorn life in all its various relations, one whose worth will be long remembered and whose early death, widely deplored. (March 5, 1836, p. 3)

233. In Providence, on the 26th ult. GEORGE A., infant son of Geo. A. and Jane M. Whiting,--aged 18 months. "Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade; / Death kindly came with friendly care, / The op'ning bud, to Heaven, conveyed / And bade it bloom forever there. Communicated. (March 5, 1836, p. 3)

234. In Dundaff, on the 4th inst of Consumption; Mrs. JANE E. ROGERS, wife of Mr. Anson Rogers, in the 32d year of her age. Mrs. R. had been for some years a member of the Presbyterian Church in Dundaff, she was a practical christian; evincing to her friends and neighbors, the reality and excellence of that religion which she professed. During the last few months of her life, she was called to endure severe pain and suffering, which she bore with christian resignation and submission to the will of God; expressing to the last, a firm and unshaken confidence in her saviour; leaving to her friends, a comfortable hope, that she had exchanged a world of sin and suffering, for that rest that remaineth to the people of God. Communicated. (March 19, 1836, p. 3)

235. In Abington on Sunday the 27th ultimo at the residence of his Son, Mr. JAMES STONE, aged 84 years and 8 months. (April 2, 1836, p. 3)

236. In this Village, on the 6th inst. an infant son of J. W. Goff, aged 1 year, after an illness of about three weeks. (May 7, 1836, p. 3)

237. Also, an infant child of the late Patrick Karney, 6 or 8 months of age. (May 7, 1836, p. 3)

238. In Nicholson, on Saturday last, Miss CLOE GORMAN, daughter of Mr. John Gorman. The dispensations of Providence have been peculiarly afflicting to the family of Mr. Gorman, as this is the 4th death in his family within 3 months. (May 28, 1836, p. 3)

239. In Greenfield, on Friday of last week, Mr. FENNER TOMKINS, aged about 28 years. Mr. Tomkins was a young man of the most estimable character, and up to the time of the death of his wife, of most enterprising and energetic mind; but shortly after this event, a gloomy melancholy seems to have, in some degree, unsettled his intellect, under which, for the last few years, he appeared to have been sinking, until at last, he fell a victim to the malady of his imagination. (May 28, 1836, p. 3)

240. In Tompkins, Deamon county, N. Y. on the first of June last, Mrs. MARY J. ANGEL, wife of Mr. Cortez Angel, of this place, aged 21 years. Mrs. Angel had been a member of the Presbyterian church for the last 6 years of her life, and ever maintained that love and zeal for the cause she had espoused until death. In her last illness, which was the Consumption, with which she gradually sank down, she exhibited that resignation and confidence in God, that characterises the truly good. Although anxious at times for her time of departure to come, she was never heard to murmur or complain, but after taking each by the hand and bidding her friends farewell, whilst in the agonies death, she raised her voice and cried, come welcome death, I am prepared to go, and, in a few moments her spirit left the house of clay for a better Mansion, we trust, where the wicked cease from trouble and the weary are at rest. (July 9, 1836, p. 3)

241. In Blakely, on Monday last, Mr. DAVID DAVIS, aged about 60 years. (August 27, 1836, p. 3)

242. In Clifford, Susquehanna Co. on Sunday the 11th inst. Mr. George Oram, aged about 65 years. (September 17, 1836, p. 3)

243. In Greenfield, on Sunday the 11th instant, Margaret Jane Vail, daughter of Samuel Vail, Esq. aged about 17 years. (September 17, 1836, p. 3)

244. In this Village, on Sunday evening, the 23d inst. of Pulmonary consumption, Mr. William Merrill, in the 25th year of his age. (October 29, 1836, p. 3)

245. In this Village, on Friday the 14th inst. Mr. John Babcock, aged about 45 years. (October 29, 1836, p. 3)

246. In this Village, on the 15th inst. Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. James Birdsall, aged 3 years. (October 29, 1836, p. 3)

247. After a lingering illness, on Saturday evening last, the 4th instant, at Barbourville, Del. Co. N. Y. Mrs. Sarah Ann, wife of H. P. Ensign, formerly of this place. (February 11, 1837, p. 3)

248. In this Village, on the 26th ult. Hannah, daughter of Wm. Copeland, M. D. aged 3 years 11 months and 15 days. (March 4, 1837, p. 3)

249. At Dundaff on March 17th Edward Slocum infant child of Wm. H. Slocum aged four months. (April 1, 1837, p. 3)

250. At Tyburn, of suffocation, Mr. Paul Bamboozle. He was an affectionate husband, a kind father, a generous friend, a sincere christian and an honest man. He has left three wives and twenty children to mourn his loss. (April 1, 1837, p. 3) [Is this an April Fool death?]

251. Another Revolutionary hero gone.--Died at the Baltimore Almshouse, Captain John Watson, a soldier of the Revolution, in the ninety-seventh year of his age. His memory is embalmed in the tears of a grateful country. (April 1, 1837, p. 3)

252. In Herrick on the 18th instant Bradley Bishop, son of Alonson and Angelina Reed, aged one year and five months. (April 22, 1837, p. 3)

253. DIED, at his residence, in Providence, on the 12th inst. Mr. Daniel Wedeman, in the 88th year of his age. Mr. W. was among the pedemets of soldiers sent over by the Emperor of Germany according to the treaty of the British King, to assist in the subjugation of America. In the year 1777, he became a prisoner of war, in Burgoyne's army, but instead of returning to the British, he enlisted into the American army, and assisted in obtaining their Liberty--subsequently he has with the few remaining Fathers who sought the combat that Congress had granted to the founders of our Liberties. Great Father God, in whom we live, / Thy gracious will be done, / Grant that those Fathers, comfort have, / While endless ages run. (May 20, 1837, p. 3)

254. In this village on the 20th instant Mrs. Wealthy, consort of Mr. Judson Clark, aged 23 years. Mrs. Clark was a resident of Freetown, Cortland county New York, and has not been a resident of this village but little more than a year. (May 27, 1837, p. 3)

255. In Kingston township, on the 26th ult, Mr. John Atherholt, formerly proprietor of the Republican Farmer, aged 26 years. (June 17, 1837, p. 3)

256. In this village on Monday evening, the 12th inst. Mr. WM. SASMAN, aged about forty years. We have known Mr. Sasman about 18 or 20 years, and first became acquainted with him in Philadelphia, while he was a Journeyman Printer. From there he removed to Wayne County, and after having worked in the same capacity, at Montrose, Dundaff, and other places, for several years, he commenced the publication of "The Wayne County Enquirer," at Bethany, which he continued a number of years, when he abandoned it in consequence of an enfeebled constitution--he removed to this village some months since, and worked a short time in this office--but in consequence of the rapid decline of his health, abandoned the printing business and occupied an honorable situation in the employ of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company. Mr. Sasman always sustained the character an industrious man, and has left an affectionate and estimable wife and connexions, to mourn his early exit. Mr. Sasman's death was occasioned by consumption, which too often terminate the lives of those who follow the profession. Whose Forms are lock'd up in Eternity's Chase, / and their spirits sent off to the Chapel on high-- / Proved and Corrected, and each in their place, / And Revised by an Author of impartial eye. (June 17, 1837, p. 3)
